Statement

Alessio Ranaldi is a professional artist born in Italy in 1974, he currently lives in Berlin, where He deepens His visual art research. Since his young age was interest in artistic activities, ranging from music, painting, mosaic and jewelry before joining to sculpture. In 2002 He graduated at the Rome Art Academy in the jewelry design department, just later He enrolled to the stone carving. After His studies, He began immediately to participate in the international sculpture symposiums, taking part in exhibitions in Italy and on several parts of the world, actively participating in art groups. including: – BBK Fine Art Association Berlin – Center ISC - international professional artists NJ – Gallery Agora Gallery, New York – The Unit of the World Art Foundation Ekaterinburg, Russia

His research is characterized by the interaction between two or more elements, where the concept of action and reaction occurs at the moment of the collision, transforming in that moment simple geometric polygons to deep forms and sharp play of lightshade, which is brought to organic synthesis with the classic soft plasticity of the round forms developed at 360 degree.
